Benefits of Gathering Information

When you gather this information, you have a great start to creating a good estate plan. Armed with this information in one place, you are better prepared to meet with an estate planning professional to make your estate planning process much easier and less expensive. Planning ahead can bring comfort to you and your loved ones while also fulfilling your desires for friends and family.

Benefits of an Estate Plan

- An estate plan should give you and your family peace of mind, knowing that important and sometimes difficult decisions have been made to care for you and your loved ones.
- An estate plan provides for your future medical decisions and protects your family. A good plan may increase your lifetime security and also achieve your goals for family and charities special to you.
- A well-designed estate plan makes provision for both you and your family. You can transfer property to the right people, in the right way, at the right time and at a minimal cost.
- Don't make your family guess where and with whom you want to share your income and items.

Pets

- Living Pet Trust
- Will provision for pet
- Pet protection

Who is willing to take care of your pets?

Would you like to compensate someone for caring for your pet? Be sure to include in your will or trust.

Keep in mind annual cost of care.

Final Wishes

- Burial
- Cremation
- Organ donor
- Donation for medical research

Celebration of Life Details

- Location
- Type of service
- Church/Clergy
- Cemetery
- Music - vocalist, organist, hymns, etc.
